The immediate Past Mayor and the Town Clerk submitted a joint annual report which highlighted the work of the Council over the past year and the challenges it faced in the future.

RESOLVED that:-

- (b) as the nature of the work undertaken by the Assistant to the Town Clerk had gradually evolved since her appointment just over four years ago the Staffing and Training Committee be asked to consider re-designating this post to Assistant Clerk.
- (b) an informal meeting of the Council be arranged to consider and identify its' aims, aspirations and priorities for the town for future years.

3. MATTERS RAISED BY THE PUBLIC

A letter was submitted from Diana Land regarding repairs to Wellington Monument. Mrs Land had attended a recent National Trust open day at the Monument and had been pleased to hear the positive attitude adopted by representatives of the Trust. She hoped that this would herald an end to the long running saga of the repairs to the building.

The meeting ended at 6.40 pm

Signed.....
Town Mayor
